

Emma's Drømmekjøkken

Emma's is a very well known restaurant in Tromsø. Well-known for the quality of their food, their presentation of the food to you and their very high standard of service. Emma's is one of those restaurants where you go when you want to celebrate something special and what better occasion to celebrate than the joy of being on holiday in Arctic Norway! Food is based on locally sourced ingredients so expect quality fish, especially King Crab and cod, and reindeer of course - but don't worry, vegetarians and those with special diets are also catered for in gourmet fashion when we have advised them in advance.

The restaurant is owned by Anne Brit Andreassen (above left) who has 30 years experience in the restaurant business, so she now knows a thing or two about food and wine and creating an ambience which is conducive to relaxing, socialising and, of course, eating and drinking! The staff at Emma's all enjoy working there, and it shows as they present each course with obvious pride—a level of service which has led to the restaurant enjoying a very loyal, local following plus one of those most likely to be recommended by Tromsø hotels for a special treat.

Suzel, Jo and Margaret have all indulged their passion for food at Emma's (well someone has to do the testing!) - Terry, Shing and Clara aspire to.....
